You weren't given access to the bundles as the Court of Appeal had made it clear that they were not to be given to you until further notice. The notice changing that situation was only made on the 11/11/16.

We have no access to a printer as the power lead was left in our house, you have the key, and you have told us we couldn't go back in, nor any money at the moment, but in order to comply with the instruction of the court in a timely manner, we have made it available for you to download and print from the link below as the most efficient and environmentally-friendly method. We know you are already familiar with this site: <http://stopdefamation.net/documents/>

Volume 1 is the bundle for our original permission to appeal, which can be found in section "4. Permission to Appeal Bundle", documents a to e;

Volume 2 is our submission to reopen the appeal, which can be found in section "7. Case to Reopen Appeal A2/2015/2839/A", documents c to k.
